PROLOGUE

War still filled Typhon the evil Infinite empire controlled are land. Nebu is now in the clutches of General Durbeck. Our mission flailed. I thought we would never ever see Nebu again, but with the planning we have I knew we will save him.

Nicky says, "Caleb." I reply, "Nicky we need to make this." I hand Nicky the scroll. The scroll read "Keys, power, Knowledge, protection." Nicky says, "What is it?" I answer, "I call it a holocron. This can lock the temple and we can leave and fight." Nicky says, "What do we need?" I say, "The force, metal, and kyber crystal. Come on we need to go to the study room." Nicky says, "Will this help us get Nebu." I answer, "Yes before we can attack we need this." Nicky says, "For what?" I say, "Knowledge."

Bobs runs to me. Bob had no air. I say, "Bob what's wrong?" Bob replies, "Ugh the Rakata are coming lots of them, maybe one hundred soldiers." I say, Nicky came with me. Bobs have the troops use the guns we stole against the Rakata hurry." Bobs says, "Yes sir." Nicky says, "Where to?" I say, "We need to make the holocron so we can protect the temple." Nicky says, "Got it." I walk to the window. I saw the Rakata with blasters and vest of armor on. I thought, is this really the way we die?

The Rakata solider began to open fire. Blast, boom, ugh, I heard those sounds are the sounds I hate. Those are the sounds of death. The infinite empire has always a plan and not just a way to move in and fight. I heard Bobs yell, "Fire." AS Nicky and I run to the study room I look and I see the Rakata dying and not my men, not my friends. I was happy, I thought we might just win this war.

PART 1

This story has been split up into multiple segments to divide up this story. You have reached the first part of this three-part segment story.

INTERLUDE CORUSCANT

The Republic had just settled on Coruscant. The evil shadow of the Infinite Empire haunts everyone in the newly formed Republic. The senate from one hundred different systems have all gathered here. The Republic now has a new fleet from all one hundred systems joining there cause from Mon Callia ships and new corvettes and heavy shielded transports. Grand Senator Var Marik has sent an emergency senate meeting to help the poor and powerless in the outer rim.

The senate has all meet in the grand senate building on Coruscant. Var Marik says, "We have brought a noble peasant from Moon 5 in the outer rim before the newly formed Republic Seante." "Thank You." The Peasant said. A Rodian from the Corellia System said, "What does you story Mam?" The Noble walks towards her pod and presses the microphone button on her screen. The Noble says, "My children are gone, the Infinite Empire has kidnap my son and his friends." The Mon Callia says in fear, "Who is you son?" The noble answers, "Caleb and his friends are Nicky and Nebu." The grand senator Var Marik says, "We have recovered some photos of the Rakatas fleet from our own fleet." The photos appeared on the wall. There are photos of thousands of men, women, and children floating in the air entering the pyramid. The Grand senator says proud, "We will find them Mam." The noble says excited, "Thank you so much."

CHAPTER 1

The wall was shacking and I heard boom. Nicky says, “Come on we need to hurry it up.” I follow Nicky up the stairs. Nicky says, “Hand me the scroll.” I hand Nicky the scroll of the holocron. Nicky says, “Were here.” I sit down, so does Nicky. I read the scroll aloud, “Metal, Kyber the force is what we need to make the balance the knowledge.” Nicky says, “hand me the metal.” Nicky takes the metal and takes the kyber. She closed her eyes and put her hand out in front of herself. The materials started to float in the air and to combine tougher as one. I say in excitement, “The holocron!” The object is a cubed like shaped, glowing blue with golden metal on the sides.

SMASH, BOOM the wall has fallen. The wall is gone the Rakata are climbing in. I grab at my lightsaber, The Rakata soldier uses his staff and knocks my lightsaber out of my hand. Nicky says, “Who does this work?” I answer, “Set it on the door opener.” Nicky runs for the wall. There on the wall is the door opener and Nicky throws the holocron at the wall. The holocron reaches the wall. Brick comes up everywhere the empty space in the wall fills with brick and the wall is brought back thanks to the holocron. Nicky uses the force and reaches out the lightsaber. Nicky says, “Catch Caleb.” I reach out and I grab my lightsaber. I see my blue light come out of the sword and I slice the Rakatas weapon in half. I say to the Rakata, “Stand down.” The Rakata says, “Never.” I say to Nicky, “Take this scum to the holding rooms.” Nicky nods her head.

I run to the hanger room and I see five of my men firing at the Rakata. There sits a starfighter that Nicky created with the guns we stole from the Rakata. I jump into the fighter and on the sides of the console sit the controls of the weapons on the sides of the ship. I press the red button. Blasts of red lasers are coming out of the guns. The Rakata are running in fear of the fire. The soldiers run and hide behind the trees of our temple. I saw the Rakata running to their transport. The transport began to lift off the ground. I took the cannons of the star fighter and raised them in the air. The transport lifted off and I fired. Boom, I missed the first shot. Fire again I did. Boom I heard, and again I fired BOOM, clash, pow. Those sounds were the sounds of victory. I looked up and I saw the wreckage of the transport falling out of the sky and fire flamed the wreckage. I stepped out of the star fighter. The troops that stood there said in an amazed look said, “Wow that was some firing you got there.” Boz comes from behind me and pats me on the back. He congrats me and says, “Excellent job Caleb.” I answer, “Thanks.” Nicky walks up and says, “I have a plan to get Nebu back.” “How?” Boz and I say. Nicky says, “The Rakata Prisoner is our key to the Rakata fleet.”

“You’re going to fly us into the Rakata command ship.” I said to the Rakata prisoner. The Rakata said, “Fine only if you let me go.” I answer, “Deal.” Nicky walks up to us and says, “When do we leave to rescue Nebu?” I answer, “At nightfall.” Nicky says, “We might want to get ready then it is starting to get dark.” I nod my head and say, “Get everyone ready will you for me.” Nicky says, “Yeah sure thing.” The Rakata prisoner says, “What do I fly?” I say, “What we tell you to fly.”

Above in the sky of the night still the two Rakata ships stand. I think to myself, soon one day those will be gone, Nebu will be home and maybe just maybe I can see my family again back on Moon 5.

Nicky walks by me and says, “What you are thinking.” I answer, “Being home and having Nebu by our side.” Nicky says, “Don’t worry I know Nebu will be back, I am sure of it.” I answer, “Thanks Nicky.” Nicky replies, “anytime Caleb.”

Bobs approached Nicky and myself staring into the sky. Bobs said, “Grand Master, everything is ready for our rescue mission.” I answer, “Good General Bobs.” Bobs looks at me like he was shot by a blaster. I say, “You good?” Bobs says, “Ugh I’m a General now.” I say, “You sure are in my army.” Bobs said, “Thank you Caleb it’s an honor.” I say, “Let’s just go and rescue Nebu.” We grab our lightsaber and walk off to the hanger pad.

Nicky says, "I'm going to go and grab the prisoner." I say, "Ok." Five of the pilots approach me and Bobs. I say, "Yes pilots." They all answer, "Do we have permission to leave." Bobs said, "Permission Granted, start the attack." The pilots walk off to their fighters. Nicky came and said, "Go Rakata scum you better fly right or else." The prisoner said, "Yeah I am flying right." I say, "Everyone load up let's go." We walk into the Rakata transport. The transport ship was grey and red colored, with a large enough room to fit up to ten men. I say, "May the force be with us." And there it was we took off first and then the fighters followed us. Nicky says, "The plan is now in motion."

We saw two Rakata pyramid star ships dead ahead. I contact the pilots, "Start the plan now." Rapid fire begins to fire from behind. It wasn't the Rakata but the pilots pretending to attack the Rakata transport. Bobs says to the Rakata prisoner, "Contact your friends and say you need to land." The prisoner says, "Yes sir." He pressed the red button and spoke into the button, "Im under attack, I just escaped the Jedia scum and there attacking me I need to land." A voice came back through. That voice was none other than General Durbeck. Durbeck says, "You have permission to land hurry." I look at Nicky and say, "This just might endanger the mission." Nicky says, "Don't worry I will deal with him." We then entered the Rakata war ship. Caleb says, "Get off now and fast Everyone and make your way for the prison." Everyone looks at me and says, "Yes Grand Master Caleb were going to get our friend back." I say, "Good and may the force be with us."

“Where were you captain?” Said the Rakata inspector. The Rakata prisoner says, “I was captured by these scums.” I walk from behind the Rakata inspector and stab him with my lightsaber. “UGH,” the Rakata cried out. I say, “I’m sorry.” Bobs and the others emerge from the transport. The Rakata prisoner hands Bobs a wrist arm badge. The prisoner says, “Here you will need this.” I say, “Why do this?” The Rakata answers, “Because you care for your friend and the Infinte empire was wrong to do this to you. The Republic will deal with us, and now I want to do the right thing and help you and your friend Caleb.” “Thank you,” Nicky said. We begin to walk off and so does the Rakata.

I say, “Bobs, can I see that wrist arm badge.” Boz turns around and hands me the wrist badge. I click on the screen where it says navigation. I say to my friends, “The holding cells are on the other side of this wall.” Nicky says, “Let’s go before any more troops come.” Bobs said, “To late Nicky.” General Durbeck and a squad of men followed him. Durbeck says with a smile on his face, “Will Caleb now it’s you that have lost. Take these Jedia scum to the holding cells immediately.” I say, “You think that can stop us Durbeck.” Durbeck yells, “Kill them all of them.” The Rakata soldier grab at their blasters. But we were faster, our lightsabers were activated and the Rakata were sliced down. Durbeck lifts out his hand and begins to squeeze it, Nicky was in the air crying for air to breathe. I instantly slice Durbecks ugly red hand off him. Durbeck screamed in pain. I say, "No Durbeck we have won." I run for Nicky and she fell to the ground. I say, "Nicky are you ok?" Nicky coughs, "Yeah I'm good." Durbeck stands there defeated and surrounded by Bobs and his men. I say to bobs, "Take Durbeck to the transport." Bobs said, "Yes sir." Nicky and I begin to walk off once more. Nicky and I walk through the door and into the holding cells room. The holding cells room is an open area with multiple doors to hold prisoners. "HELP HELP HELP." Nicky says, "Do you hear that." I answer, "Yeha that's Nebu." We run for cell and we press the green open button. There standing in front of us was Nebu. I say, "Nebu, are you ok?" Nebu answers, "Now that you guys are here I am." Nicky runs to Nebu and hugs him in excitement. I say, "We need to leave before they come for us." We walk out of the cell and into the hanger room. Bobs said, "Come on, incoming ships." We run into the transport and Bobs starts the ship. We lifted off and be reversed our transport and flew out. Bobs said, "We have incoming ships." I say, "Who the Infinite Empire?" Nebu says, "No look, it's the Republic. We looked out the window and we saw five hammerhead corvettes, three transports, one Mon Callia command ship, and three corvettes. The Republic ships started to open fire on the Rakata warships. Fire was everywhere and the Rakata were leaving it looked like. The two warships began to charge the hyperdrives and then in an instant they were gone. Nebu says, "Peace at last." I say, "Lets finally go home."

INTERLUDE THE STARFORGE

Several star cruisers, warships and fighters have emerged from hyperspace. There they looked forward and they saw the Rakata StarForge. The StarForge was an ultimate weapon of creation. The forge was a star ship created with heavy guns and weapons powerful enough to destroy an entire fleet. All who went by the StarForge were brave and courageous. The stories of the Rakata said never to go by the StarForge.

The head of the Rakatas Infinite Empire was none other than Ion Carn leader and head of the evil Infinite empire. As Ion Carn looked ahead out of the massive window he saw the Rakata fleet emerging from hyperspace. The Commander named Blazet walked to Ion Carn. blazet says, "Sir that is the fleet from the Tython system." Ion answered, "What are they doing?" Blazet answers, "I am not sure, we will contact General Durbeck." Ion answered, "At once." Hum the transmitting box went. And then we heard the sound of a commander. Ion says, "Where is Durbeck?" The commander answers, "The Jedi'a order and their Republic friends have him." Ion says with a rage tone, "DOCK WITH THE STARFORGE AT ONCE." The commander says, "yes sir." The Rakata fleet was making their blockade over the Starforge for protection. Then we saw the red and sliver transport ship fly out of the warship capital ship. The transport was flying faster than usual. Ion thought why is that going so fast? Ion pressed the transmitting box and spoke into it. "Slow down immediately." Said Ion. The commander responded, "Yes sir."

Then the transport weapons systems powered on. Ion said to Blazet, “Destroy that ship at once.” Blazet walked to the control panel in front of the window. The transport ship hyperdrive engine powered on and then like a flash the transport was gone. Ion looked out the window and saw a massive hole in the middle of a Rakata warship. The warship was falling from the sky. Flames and smoke filled the void of space. Blazet presses the yellow button on the control panel. Beeb beeb beeb those sounds filled the starforge. Ion said, “Put us on lockdown right now and search the warships for any more defectors.” Blazet said, “Sir yes sir.” Ion looked at the security tapes and saw the factories and the slaves working on more and more ships for the infinite empire. Ion said, “We need more ships.” Blazet answers, “Ugh why?” Ion answers, “The rescue mission of Durbeck and the destruction of the Republic on Coruscant.”

We walked up the steps of the temple and up to the door. There in the wall was the holocron. I put my hand out and then I focused then the holocron lifted up and the sides slides down. I looked at it and then it was open. The door in front of us lifted and the holocron door locked was unlocked. Nebu says, "What is that?" I answer, "A holocron." Nicky, Nebu, Bobs, and I walked inside the temple. Bobs said, "Sit Nebu and tell us what happened." Nebu and we all sat down. Nicky says with a tone, "What is the Bogan?" Nebu says, "Let me tell you what happened." I say, "Go on." Nebu then said, "This is what happened."

Three weeks ago: Bang, Nebu was thrown in the prison cell. Durbeck said, "Now the time of the Rakata will rise." Nebu looked at him with an evil look. Durbeck put his hand out in front of himself and then raised his hand and began to close it. Nebu was lifted from the ground and was grabbing his through for air. Durbeck then put his hand back down. Durbeck said, "The Bogan is all that is around, the dark side of the force will destroy your so called Jed'ia order. Nebu door to the cell then closed. Durbeck walked off and then like that they were gone.

Nebu stared at the wall thinking, "How could I escape?" By the door was stairs where you could hide under. Nebu hits the door again and again yelling, "Help me the Jed'ia are here." Nebu heard noises of people running to the door. The door raised and two Rakata guards dressed in red and gold armor with heavy repeater blasters came walking down the stairs and into the cell. The guards said, “Where is he?” Nebu popped out from behind them and hit one of the Rakata in the head. The guard fell to the ground. Nebu reached down and grabbed for the blaster. Nebu pressed the trigger as fast as he could and the other Rakata guard fell to the ground. Nebu then walks out of the cell.

Nebu walked from the cell to the hanger door. At the door stood Durbeck. “Well you thought you could escape Nebu?” said Durbeck. Nebu raises the blaster at him and said, “Don’t move.” Durbeck did move, he grabbed a sword from his belt. The sword was not like a lightsaber but it was golden blade glowing red. Durbeck said, “Join the Bogan, you have that power tougher you can save the galaxy.” Nebu screamed, “NEVER!” Nebu took the shot he fired the blaster at Durbeck. The shot missed, the shot hit his blade. Durbeck swung his blade back and forth and said, “If you won’t join me you will die.” Nebu said “Fine fine I will join the Bogan.”

Once more Nebu was in his cell staring at the wall again. But that is when he heard something. He looked out the small 4 by 2 window and saw a Rakata transport flying into the Rakata warship. Then he saw Republic fleet ships and those ships Nicky built. Nebu thought, “My friends came back for me.”

Present time: Nebu said, "That is what happened." Nicky said, "Now the Rakata are gone and we have you back." I say, "We lost multiple men trying to save you, me and all of us around." A holo transition came through the transmitting box. Bobs walks over there and says, "It's live." He pressed the answer button. It was Admiral Starf. Starf said, "We are under attack from Rakata Starfighters. We have to leave I promise on the name of the Republic we will be back." I step up and say, "Where are they?" Starf answers, "EvErWherE." I say, "What I can't understand you." Bobs said, "Were stuck here again."

PART 2

You have reached the second segment of this three-part segment book. There will be two more parts of this second book in the Beginnings of the Jedi story.

We walked out to the hanger and saw Rakata Starfighter attacking the Republic fleet over Tython. Nebu says, "We will use the Bogan to defeat this evil called the Rakata." I answer, "No we will never use that." Nebu yells, "But the dark side of the force will be the key to save the Republic. Nicky says, "What is wrong with you Nebu." Nebu says, "If you won't embrace the dark side then you all we be destroyed." Nicky says, "Nebu I don't know what has happened to you but you need to stop now." Nebu grabs his lightsaber and turns it on. I say, "Then it's a force war." Nebu says, "So then it is." Several of the older men and women from their quarters run up to the hanger and activate their lightsaber. I say, "Nicky, Bobs get our men and run." All of our people get into the fighters and the transport. Nebu yells, "Stop them from escaping." The traitors grab the Rakata blasters we stole and fired at us. Bobs, Nicky and I were on the transport with the trusted men and women. We looked out the window and saw our fighters by our side being struck down from the sky. Bobs was in the cockpit seat. I walk over to bobs and say, "Get us somewhere safe fast." Bobs says, "Were headed up to space."

In the space above there was the space battle between the five Rakata Starfighters and the Republic fleet. Nicky says, "Send in the fighters to deal with those Rakata ships." I ordered the fighters to go and get them out of the sky. Then I an instant the fighters move from the transport to the battle. The fighters moved from left to right and then under the Republic command ship. Blast the Rakata fighter was destroyed. Only four more Rakata ships were left. The Rakata ships powered on their hyperdrives and then they were gone. I said, "Nicky try to intercept any transmission." Nicky says, "Here is one but it is encrypted, it will take me a while." One of the Republic's hammerhead corvettes docked with our small Rakata transport. The door opened. Nicky, Bobs and I walked out and met Admiral Starf in the command room. Starf was standing by the holotable looking out into the void of space. Starf says, "Where is Nebu?" I say, "There is a force war, we can't come back to your capital yet." Starf answers, "What is this so-called force war?" I answer, "Nebu rallied several of our men to join the dark side of the force. That evil general Durbeck taught him the way of the dark side when he was captured." Starf says confused, "Our fleet must leave and report in but our hammerhead corvettes will stay and help you in this conflict." I say, "Thank you sir." Nicky says, "I am going to go and decrypt the coded message we picked up." Bobs says, "I will prepare the men for a battle." I look out the window and into space and see the planet of Tython. Tython is so beautiful until now, until I see the red flames from the globe. I run over to the holotable and press the scan button. Then the scan was complete, the planet was on fire. I say, "Starf this is all out warfare."

INTERLUDE CORELLIA

THREE MONTHS AGO

The Rakata has the most valuable tech in all of the galaxy. The republic is just now being created. The Republic fleet is safe over their capital of Coruscant but they cannot leave without hyperdrive tech.

“This is the Grand Senator of the Republic.” Said the Grand senator. The operative named Rax replies, “I have the mission, and I can achieve this mission. I will bring this tech to Coruscant.” The grand senator says, “Good luck.” Rak says, “I don’t need luck.”

Rax was a Republic operative working in the Corellia system. Rax got up from his small home on Correllia. Rax then walks to the yard and sees more and more Rakata ships coming out of the factory in the city. Rax says to himself, “Time to go and get me some hyperdrives.” The speeder bike laying by the small house has been sitting there for years. “Ugh I don’t even know of if it will start.” The speeder bike then and surprisingly started. Rax jumped on the bike and drove north towards the Rakata factory.

“Stop right there.” Said the Rakata. Rax pulls the speader bike to a complete stop. Rax says, “Yes sir.” The Rakata says, “You our new slave, it just your lucky day.” Rax answers happily, “But I am a citizen.” The Rakata then hits Rax in the head.” With me you slave.” Rax gets off the bike and follows the Rakata into the factory.

Rax was thrown into the factory. The Rakata says, “Get to work.” Rax looks around and sees hundreds of people shoving coal into the pipes. On the wall was a door protected by two guards. Rax then walks over and sees through the window a command console. Rax says, “Will sir, what exactly am I spouse to do?” The guard says, “What do you see the others doing.” Rax replies, “ugh your defeat.” Rax hits the Rakata in the face and charges at him. Rax presses the open button and then the door opened. Rax ran and ran to the console and hit close door. The door closed. Rax said to himself, “Wow that was close.” Rax inserted the drive and clicked download. “Hurry.” Guards ran to him and Rax immediately took the drive and ran for a ship. Rax ran out the door and ran up the ramp into a ship.

“Wow, now off the Coruscant with this hyperdrive info.” The Rakata fighter jet Rax stole lifted off and left the planet. The communication system powered on and Rax contacted the Republic. Rax said, “Grand senator, I have the tech and a stolen fighter jet. I will be coming into Coruscant soon.” Grand Senator replies, “Good work we will be waiting on your arrival.” Rax pressed jump and then he was on his way to the Republic’s capital.

“Oto, we need more and more ships built to combat these fools!” Said Nebu. Oto says in fear, “Yes sir, we have begun production on a transport.” Nebu looks up and hears a sound the sound was a vroom. Then in the sky was a fighter with Nicky and I on board.

I say, “Nebu it’s over, you can end this now.” Nebu replies, “Oh Nicky you shouldn’t of came. I really liked you Nicky.” Nebu then leans forward and spins in the air with his lightsaber. The fighter was sliced in half. I yell, “No!” I run for Nebu and slice my lightsaber at him. Nebu was too fast and our lightsabers were hitting each other. Nebu says, “I have learned and gained more power from the Bogan.” Oto grabs a gun from the ground and fires it at Nicky. Nicky screams in pain. Nicky yells, “Help!!” I run for Nicky as she falls off the hanger. I jump and grab Nicky’s hand. Nicky says, “Take this.” Nicky hands me a watch with a button on it. I immediately click the button and then a ship from the hanger flies down and picks us up. Nicky says, “Like that design?” I say, “I love it.” Nicky climbs in the cockpit and we then fly off.

Nicky fly back up to the hanger. Nebu and Oto are standing there. Nebu says, “Really you live.” I say, “Here, this is a gift for you from being back from the dead.” I throw a grenade at Nebu and then they run for it. I yell to Nicky, “Get us out of here.” Nicky backs us up and we watch the firework show going off. Then flames and smoke and a loud boom noise go off. The ships sitting on the hanger were blown up. No ships on the hanger bay survived, all our work was destroyed. Nebu yells, “I will kill you and again he repeats it, I will kill you.” I crawl into the cockpit as well and say, “Nicky get us to the caves where we got the kyber crystals.” Nicky replies, “Yes sir.”

Oto says, “Sir we have lost everything.” Nebu yells, “I know and it’s your fault.” Oto answers, “But there is some good news.” Nebu replies, “What is the good news?” “There are going to the caves where you and Caleb got the crystals.” Nebu says, “How do you know?” Oto answers, “I overheard them saying it.” Nebu says, “Have my sith warriors sent to the caverns at once.” Oto says, “Yes sir.”

CHAPTER 8

“Admiral have everything ready for battle.” I said. Admiral Starf looked at me and said, “Why Caleb? What has happened?” I look at Nicky and say, “Nicky tell him what happened.” I then walk off and into the caves. Nicky says to Starf, “There coming, there all coming. The entire army and fleet.” Starf looks upon the land. Nicky then turns and looks as well. I hear a noise, it was Nicky screaming. Nicky yelled, “Caleb lets go.” I run out of the cave and look at where Starf and Nicky are looking. I see the armies of the sith and the new leadership.

Transports and fighters and men and women are charging in at the caves from the road and from the transports in the sky. Nicky says, “Caleb I think it is time to act.” I answer, “No we wait.” From out of the sky fell Nebu and none other than the escaped prisoner, General Durbeck. Nicky and I both activate our lightsabers. Admiral Starf grabs his gun from his holster. Nebu says, “Well this hiding place isn’t so great I can see.” I answer, “It’s better than where you are at.” Durbeck says, “Kill those three now.” Nebu says to Durbeck, “Wait.” I say to Nebu, “Don’t let the dark side cloud your judgement.” Nebu’s face turns red and then he yells from the top of his lungs, “Why is the temple worse!!!!!!!!!!” I say, “Because Nicky let our old home down.” Nebu says, “No more riddles!! What does that mean?” I reply, “Nicky let it off.”

Blasts then from the temple were heard from all the over here at the kyber caves. Everyone turns around and then looks at the temple. We could hear the booms and cracks from here. Then it happened, the explosives went off. Fire was all over the temple and then we all looked, including the evil Durbeck. What we saw was the temple exploding and the destruction of the Sith order.

Nebu then yelled to the remaining traitorous Sith, "Kill them all." The Sith came from all directions and activated their green or blue lightsabers. Then in an instant all the lightsaber have turned red. I then thought to myself, The red cave, that's for the sith. The color red stands for sith.

The sith came for Nicky, Starf, and I. The sith were right next to us swiping the lightsabers at us. Nicky says, "Starf its time." Starf then presses the com unit and then speaks into it. Starf said, "Now end this war." Durbeck walks forward and says, "At last you are silenced." Starf says, "I don't know how you escaped but it's over."

In the sky fly down was a dreadnaught heavy cruiser and the hammerhead corvette. Lazer blasts and shots came down from the sky. The sith warriors were shot down. Nicky and I yell in happiness. I look at Nebu and then see him fall off the cliff. I run after for Nebu, but it was too late I couldn't see Nebu.

As I stand on the edge of the cliff Admiral Starf walks toward me. Admiral Starf says, "It's over, this war is finally over." I say, "It's not over until all these beasts are hunted down and are brought into justice." Starf says, "Let's just go home and see your mother." I say, "Well now I guess I head back to Moon 5." Starf looks at me and says, "No you will live on Coruscant with all of your good friends." Then from behind me was Bobs and Nicky. Nicky says, “Let’s make our way back to our family.” Bobs said, “I will return to the temple and gather our not exploded belongings.” I say, “Good luck with that. The place was destroyed from bottom to the top.”

INTERLUDE MANDLORE

Ah Mandlore, Mandlore is such a calm and beautiful world. This world has such a beautiful city. As this world is in both peace at the time and at chaos. The Rakata do not control this world.

“Sir we have news from Tython.” Said the guard. The ruler of all of Mandlore stands from his thrown. The ruler named Naynia says, “That jungle, tropical place?” The guard answers, “Yes Mam.” Naynia says, “What is it?” He replies, “The Raakata has left the planet.” Naynia yells, “No then our world is vulnerable.” The guard says in pride, “No the StarForge has been attacked by one of their own.” Naynia answers, “Excellent.”

Naynia stands upon the edge of her palace, and sees the city below. The general of the Mandlorian armies enters the Palace. Naynia comes from the balcony. “Hello General.” The general replies, “My lady my I ask something of you.” “Go ahead.” Said Naynia. “The weapons must be made for combat against the Rakata Empire.” Naynia has a red look on her face and then says, “You have permission. The ways of Mandlore are just beginning.” The general replies, “Thank you my ruler.”

Stars and other space craft filled the space above Tython. The pilot clerk turns from his desk and says, “Admiral we have multiple ships incoming.” Starf says, “At last, the Republic has come.” Nicky and I stare out of the window looking out into space. Then in an instant three royal senate cruisers jumped out of hyperspace. The ships are painted blue with five turbo lasers and a Rakatan class hyperdrive. The ships are long with docking connectors to have a small fighter dock with the ship.

Admiral Starf opens a two-way communication. The senate ships answers, the person who answered was my mother. My mother answered, “Admiral I am here as Senator of Moon 5 in search of Nicky, Caleb, and Nebu.” Starf then says, “We have Caleb and Nicky. Nebu and many others have joined the Rakata. There are a number of 46 survivors.” I then run to the desk at the front of the room. I speak to my mother for the first time in five months. I say, “Mother.” My mom then says, “Caleb is that you?” “Yes, mom were coming home back to Moon 5.” My mom then says, “No Caleb we must go to the Senate.”

Starf yells, “Man the cannons.” Nicky runs over to the middle of the room to the holo table and opens the map. I then look as well, there were dozens of starfighters with Rakata blasters on them. My mother resumes the com. Admiral starf says, “Scatter the fleet and make for Coruscant.”

A transport then came from the surface of the planet. I say, “Nicky I’m going to fight.” I then turn around and run towards a fighter. Nicky yells, “Wait Caleb.” What I call a Jedi starfighter is a triangular starfighter with Republic weapons installed. I then disconnect from the Hammerhead Corvete. The fighters are everywhere. I fly my way to the Senate cruisers to see the left cruiser in flames. The fighters fired at my ship. But I was too fast, I flipped the ship to face them. I fired the blasters at the ship and then it was gone. I then contacted Admiral Starf, “Admiral you have your opening.” The entire Republic fleet then jumped to hyperspace. The corvettes, cruisers, capital ships, transports, and fighters jumped. All that was left in the space above Tython was the Nebu’s followers. I then jumped as well to Coruscant.

CHAPTER 10

The world below was Coruscant. Coruscant was surrounded by Republic war cruisers and many bright lights. Black and orange was the color of the planet from space. Stars and civilian cargo ships enter the world by the hundreds.

The Hammerhead corvette was the command ship of Admiral Starf. But as I knew he would get a transmission, it was from Grand Senator Var Marik. Marik said, “Admiral good to have you back.” Starf replies, “Good to be back sir.” The Senate ship sent a transport down to the planet below. I knew it was my mom.

Nicky runs to me happy and excited as could be. Nicky said, “Caleb we get to meet the senate. The SENATE of all people.” I answer, “Yeah that’s cool in all but.” Nicky then said, “But what?” I reply, “The sith are still out there. Durbeck is still out there.” Nicky puts her hand on my back and says, “Don’t worry the republic will get them.”

Our hammerhead ship and the senate transports were flying down into the heart of the Republic. Coruscant is beautiful surrounded by aircrafts in the air ways. Several tall structures and buildings are in the planet. In the center of the city was a shorter building than most others but was circular. The building was at least six floors tall. All of our vessels landed at the building. I knew then it was the Senate Building.

As Nicky, Bobs, and all of the survivors and myself walk down the ramp of the hammerhead corvette I saw my mother walking out of the senate transport. Nicky and I run and run fast to my mother. It was the first time I have seen her in months. I then instantly hug my mom, Nicky does the same. I say, "Mom we will never leave again I promise." Mom then hugs me tighter. Nicky says, "it's good to back with family."

The Grand Senator Var Marik walks to the ships landed out by the senate building. The Grand senator says, "Senator Beru I see you have meet your family once more." My mom then says, "Yes, thank you Grand senator for the support." I say, "Mom we need medical support for many of our new friends." Var Marik says, "Have them come to the transport for medical support." I say, "Yes sir." Nicky says, "Well then Caleb lets go to this senate session." Bobs said, "I will get the injured to the transport." I say, "I can always count on you Bobs."

PART 3

This is the third and final segment of this story. I hope everyone will enjoy this last segment.

CHAPTER 11

The senate was filled with seats from many senators, representative's, aids, associates and grand Senator Var Marik. Nicky and I sit with my mother in her seat for the galactic senate. I say to myself it is over it has to be over. Then the opening session started with Grand Senator Mariks seat arrived.

Marik stood and said, "Senators I would like to represent to you Nicky and Caleb from Moon 5. These brave two have survived to attack from Infinite Empire." Nicky and I then rise from our seat and speak into the speaker. "Senators my name is Caleb the Grand Master of the Jedi order." Nicky then says, "I am Nicky, Calebs friend." I then say, "We were abducted on our planet from the Infinite Empire. We were taken to a world just along the borders of the inner rim. We fought and used the Rakata's magic to survive, we created our own weapons, ships. We drove them away." Nicky then started to cry. Nicky speaks, "We lost one many friends to the dark side. Other perished by the Rakata."

The full senate was in shock by the death and tragedy of what happened to us. A senator on the far right of the room presses a button on his console. A holographic image appeared in the center of the room. Nicky and I didn't recognize it until the senator said this, "Children my name is Needo from Corellia.

This is the starforge, it was recently attacked by a Rakata traitor.” Nicky and I look at one and other. Nicky instantly says into the speaker, “We encounter a traitor who said to us he would destroy their prize.”

The meeting was then over and Var Marik meet up with me. “Caleb, I have a mission for you.” I reply, “Yes sir.” Marik then says, “The underworld has had trouble with magical powers and a Rakata.” I instantly say, “Its Nebu and Durbeck. I will get a team tougher and we will end the sith.”

INTERLUDE SPACE PIRATES

In space there are many stars, planets and just crime. Space Pirates search the galaxy in search for civilian ships with precious cargo. One of the biggest Pirates gangs is the Justicars. The Justicars control northern of the outer rim.

Three circular saucer ships jumped from hyperspace. In the path of the pirate's ships was a NX 1000-freighter. Fire bolt came from the Space Pirates ships. The freighter was on fire and came to a complete stop. One of the pirates ships broke formation and made for the freighter.

The Justicars didn't know that this was a trap. When they docked with the freighter the door broke open and then they stormed in. Humans and Twilight soldiers charged in. Gun shots went off, it wasn't the Pirates but the crew serving the Republic. The man flying the freighter yelled, "There coming in." Then like a flash several Republic starfighter then jumped out of hyperspace as well.

The Pirates ships were in full retreat after the starfighter blasted a large hole open in the pirate ship docked with the freighter. The pirates turned their ships around in a second. The starfighter moved into intercept. A pilot says to the rest of the starfighters over the coms, “Everyone follow me and break one of those pirate ships. We need them for information”

The starfighter fired their blaster upon the pirates and then turrets jumped and fired back at them. The starfighter fired ion torpedoes at the ships and then they were gone. One escaped and the other was destroyed.

CHAPTER 12

The streets of the underworld are filled with people. Everywhere you look there is more and more people walking in alleys and areas. But no matter Durbeck and Nebu will blend right in then.

“Where are we going?” said Nebu. Durbeck answers, “To the home of the Sith order.” The level of the underworld Nebu and Durbeck were in was one of the higher levels of the entire underworld. The level number read “Level 5A”. Durbeck stated, “Nebu tougher we can destroy the Jedi’a and the Republic.” Nebu then says with anger and hatred, “Not Caleb or Nicky. Those two are like brothers and sisters to me.” Durbeck says, “Nebu look at you, you are a Zabrack and they are humans. Rember your loyalties to me and to the infinite empire.”

A large undeveloped area with lava surrounded Durbeck and Nebu. Durbeck says, “Ah at last, the first Sith Shrine. This is the key to kill the Republic.” And then from out of the shadows came three Jedi Knights led by Bobs. All their lightsabers were then activated. Bobs yells, “Kill Durbeck, and get Nebu this isn’t him.” The Jedi knights made up of one human and two twi’lek men charged at Durbeck.

Durbeck instantly choked out the human. He yelled in pain, "Bobs save me please!" Bobs couldn't take it anymore. Bobs lightsaber that was once in his hand then laid in Durbecks chest. Bobs yelled, "You killed my friends, my family. Then Bobs yelled it again.

Nebu looked at Bobs and the knights and then used his powers to throw everyone out of the Shrine. Bobs yells, "Nebu don't!!! The other knights try to get back into the shrine but a massive rock door collapsed in the door way. Bobs grabs his com unit and speaks, "Caleb We have Durbeck head, nebu is still out there though." Caleb comes through and says, "You killed Durbeck?" I reply, "yes Grand master."

The senate was issued an emergency session during the middle of night. All the important senators from the systems in the mid rim have all met in the senate building here on Coruscant.

Grand Senator Var Marik announced to the senators, “The time of the Republic will strive. The evil General Durbeck has been found and executed on site.” The Correllian senator Needo says, “This is about time the war criminal is killed.” A senator from Sarafur named Kuriack yells, “That is an outrage, Durbeck should have been held for a trial. These Jedi are dangerous.” I then yelled in anger, “No we are not dangerous we are protectors of this Republic. Durbeck killed many of my good friends and three civilians in the underworld.” Grand Senator Marik says, “That is enough kuriack. Durbeck has be silenced and that is all what mattered.” The senators from all around the room say, “I believe this senate meeting should be over.” Senator Marik then says, “This meeting is now over.

I think to myself why would Kuriack care if durbeck was dead or alive? Then I thought his planet is close to the Rakata capital planet “Lehon”. Nick says to me, “I know that senator is for the Rakata. I just hate that type.” My mother comes forward and says, “I know the both of you think and you need be quiet. I have begun a secret investigation into him.” I say, “So it’s not just us how think that then, good.” Nicky says, “if you will excuse us we have a mission to attend to.” My mom replies, “Then may the force be with you.”

Nicky and I are walking out of the senator building and Var Marik approached us. “Nicky, Caleb we need to talk.” We both answer, “Yes” Marik says, “We have begun construction on you a new temple above the Sith shrine.” I say, “Nicky that is it, Nebu is at the shrine.” Nicky then says, “Im sorry grand Senator but we have to bring Nebu into Republic custody.” Marik answers, “Nicky, Caleb I understand. You must bring Nebu into interrogation and bring him back to the light side of the force.” I say, “yes grand Senator we will try. But I refuse to hurt Nebu.” Nicky and I call bobs and say, “Bobs we need to setup a team and go get Nebu.” Bobs replies, “Yes Caleb, we will send all the best knights we have to get Nebu.”

Nebu is in hiding, Nebu is scared of the truth. Bobs, Nicky, and three knights and myself are in a Republic underworld hovercraft. Bobs is driving and the rest of us sit by him. Nicky picks up a device sitting on the console of the craft. Nicky says, "This device Marik gave me will locate the level we need to be in." Bobs says, "The shrine is in level 5. " I say, "Nebu is in the underworld somewhere." I pick up a communication unit and answer it. The transmitting was from Grand senator Var Marik , "Caleb my officers in level 5B have reported a sighting Nebu." I reply, "Senator we will be right there to end this once and for all." Then bobs turn the hovercraft right around and we were set to level 5B.

Havoc and chaos runs through the underworld, with Nebu runing the place. I say, "Bobs, Nicky there Nebu is. Nebu is running threw the crowds with his lightsaber." Nicky, Bobs, the three knights and myself jump off the hovercraft. Alleyes are everywhere and so are people. The walkways are bussy and there is only one way two catch up to Nebu. I yell, "Follow me." Then on the right hnad side there was railing and I jumped over it. Hovercrafts flew everywhere and from each one I jumped and jumped. Finally, I saw Nebu he was right next to me runnining on the walkway. I yell, "Nebu stop now." Nebu replies, "Make me Caleb." And then Nebu jumps on top of a hovercraft as well and activates his newly colored red lightsaber. I turn and yell, "Knights, secure the area." The Knights respond, "Yes grand master."

I say, "Nebu we can end this please." Nebu barks, "No Caleb this is my time, the time for the sith to rise." I say, "No Nebu its time for the Jed'ia to die and for the Jedi to rise." Then tougher Nicky and I run at Nebu, lightsaber activated. Nebu was fast but we were faster. My lightsaber hit Nebu's red one. Nicky falls to the ground and slices his Nebu's feet. Nebu falls to the ground and is screaming in pain, "No no I hate you, I hate you." I reach out my hand and force push him to the walkway. Nicky and I jump off the hovercraft that is moving. Nebu screams louder and louder. Bobs then approached us and says, "The grand senator Var Marik requests us back at our newly created temple." I say to Nebu, "Your lucky you were our friend and now you will be punished in the name of this Republic." Nebu cries out, "I hate you, I hate you." I say, "Enough." Nicky says, "Time to head to our real home." Bobs replies, "I will start the hovercraft." And then we set off back to the temple on the surface world."

As we land the hovercraft at the temple we saw Marik, my mom, Kuriack, a few senators, and senate Royal gaurds walk to us. Bobs, Nicky and I walk out and say, "Grand senator we have Nebu ready for trial." My mom nods her head and then the royal guards march to Kuriack and put him in cuffs. My mother says, "Kuriack you are under arrest for treason against the Republic and citing with the Infinite empire." Two of the Knights pack Nebu out of the hovercraft, (Because he has no feet). Senator Var Marik says, "Excellent work Jedi." My mother begins to cry and says, "Nebu you were like a son to me, I can't believe you would do such horrible things." Nebu has an evil grin on his face and says, "You're not my mother. I will rule this galaxy." Kuriack says, "Will I guess then Nebu we have lost this battle." Then the royal gaurds take them both away.

The senators walk forward and say, "Caleb, Nicky, Bobs, all Jedi Kuriack has said the planet Korban is where something lays." I say, "What lays." Marik says, "We don't know that's why we would like to deply you Jedi, our best and finest warriors and peace keepers of the Republic." Nicky says, "But first can we settle in to the temple please." The senators laugh and say, "Oh course you all need a break from these fights." I say, "Thank you grand senator." Marik replies, "We will have a ceremony to honor the fallen Jedi you have lost." I say again, "Thank you for everything." And then Nicky, Bobs, myself and the rest of us rush into the temple.
